Gentlemen:

Please refer to your letter, dated 15 December 1965, outlining the technical difficulties encountered and their resulting effect on delivery and cost of the equipment specified in Contract

25X1A

After reviewing the information in the above referenced letter, we are of the opinion that our consideration of your request for financial help should be deferred until satisfactory completion and delivery of all items under the Contract.

The new delivery schedule as set forth in your letter of 15 December 1965 is approved with the understanding that such approval does not constitute a commitment beyond the present Contract amount.

Very truly yours,

25X1A

Contracting Officer
